

What You Want “Broken Wanters”- Jim Burgen

January 27-28, 2018

Community:

1. When you're hungry, what snack or treat do you crave the most?
2. Share one thing that you've never done that you hope to do someday.

Core:

1. As you look at 2018, are there areas of your life that you want to look at changing? What kind of change do you want to see in those areas?
2. Based on what you know about Jesus, what do you think He would want you to take a look at? Do the changes you desire line up with what you think Jesus wants to change?
3. Jim said, “As our character is formed into the same character as the character of Jesus, our ‘wanton’ will begin to want the same things that Jesus wants.” What desires or “wants” do you have that don't line up with what Jesus says is right, true, and best?
4. What's your biggest roadblock to aligning your desires with Jesus'? What could you do to make those changes and what do you need from God in order to make them?
5. Read John 17:3. Before reading this verse, how would you have defined “eternal life”? What does this verse tell us that eternal life actually is and what does this mean for us—this side of heaven (before we die)?
6. Read 2 Corinthians 4:6. How have you seen Christ's light shine in dark places in your life and heart, in the past, and what (if any) transformation have you seen? What changes do you want to make—knowing Christ's light shines within you and is transforming you?

Challenge:

Spend some time each day this week reading 2 Corinthians 4:6 and ask God to shine His light on the areas of your heart and life that He wants to change. Then, write down or tell a trusted friend, family member or your small group one action step you plan to take in order to move towards the changes that you (and God) desire to see in your life.
