Weekend Discussion Questions

February 7-8, 2015

Community:

1. When someone comes to your door or calls you to try to sell you something, what's your typical response?
2. Did you ever have a job where you were responsible for selling people something? Did you like it? What were the things you liked about it, and what were the things you didn't?

Core:

1. Take 5 minutes and recap the six values. What moments during the weekly messages do you distinctly remember?
2. How would you define our sixth value, Relational Evangelism?
3. Relational Evangelism means that "We will intentionally leverage our influence in the world for the purpose of introducing people to the awesome love of Christ." What are good ways you've seen people do this?
4. Today, rather than talk about how to introduce people to Jesus, we're going to reflect on who God is, and what He has done—because we'll naturally tell people about things that are important to us and have made a real difference in our lives. Look through the following verses and talk through what they say about who God is, and what He has done:
 - a. Ephesians 2:1-5
 - b. Ephesians 1:7-8
 - c. Ephesians 3:14-19
 - d. Ephesians 3:20-21
5. Scott quoted Brennan Manning who said, "You will trust Him to the degree that you know you are loved by Him." What do you think that means? How have you experienced it in your own life?
6. If you were going to tell people about who God is and what He has done for you, what would you say?

Challenge:

1. Take some time to have each person in the group tell about how they first bumped into Jesus—who introduced you to Him?
2. What are the opportunities you have in your life right now to help someone else bump into Jesus?
