

If So, Then What?
Weekend Discussion Questions
September 27-28, 2014

Community:

1. Where are you on the spectrum Jim talked about: known Jesus for forever, knew Jesus and walked away but now you are back to see who Jesus is, or you are brand new to this and you are checking out who Jesus is?

Core:

1. Take a few minutes to recap what we talked about last week.
2. When in your life have you lacked "hope"?
3. What changed in your life that brought back your hope? How does Jesus do this in your life?
4. Jesus said to live everyday like it was your last, to start living like you are saved everyday. How does this idea change the way that you would live out everyday?
5. Changing our behavior doesn't make us saved, being saved changes our behavior. What in your life needs to change?
6. How do you look at and treat people who don't believe in Jesus? What does it look like for you to warn them, not jam it down their throats, but to love them and show them who Jesus is?
7. What does Jesus look like in your head? How has this image changed over your life?
8. Is there something in your life that you would be ashamed of if Jesus came back right now?
9. Think about your answer from question 8. What steps do you have to take to so that if you were to stand in front of Jesus today, you would have nothing to be ashamed of?

Challenge:

1. Last week you thought about who in your life are you hoping comes to put their hope and trust in Jesus before He comes back. What have you done this past week to show them who Jesus is?
2. What are the next steps (or first steps) you can take to show them who Jesus is, with everything you do?
3. Take the time to pray about them and the roles that you play in their lives. Talk with God about using you to do what He needs for their lives.
