

End of Days – Caught Up and Changed Forever

Weekend Discussion Questions

September 20-21, 2014

Community:

1. What are some reasons that you would want to go to a retreat, like the men that were up in Fraser this weekend?

Core:

1. Take a few minutes to recap what we talked about last week.
2. Jesus kept His promise that He would die and rise again. He also promised that He would come back. How does this give you hope in your daily life?
3. Jim talked about our endurance being fueled by the hope that Jesus is who He said He is and will do what He promised to do. How does this play out in your life?
4. People who attend flatirons are at different points in the spectrum of belief: people who have been Christians for forever, 5 minutes or still trying to figure out what they believe. Who in your life fits that last category and how do your actions show them who Christ is?
5. Jim said he believes that God could create the Earth in 6 days or 6 billion years, it doesn't matter because He is God. When you think of God, what is the picture that fills your mind? Why do you picture Him that way?
6. God always keeps his promises, even if it isn't on the timeline that we would like. How have you seen God fulfill His promises to you in your life?
7. What ideas on Heaven and Hell did you grow up with, or do you have now?
8. How does having hope in Jesus change the way that you grieve at a funeral?
9. Jesus died for your sins and obliterated sins hold on you. How does this change the way that you live everyday?

Challenge:

1. Who in your life are you around daily that you want to know Jesus? How can you live in a way that SHOWS them who Jesus is and how can you talk with them about Jesus without shoving it down their throats?
2. If Jesus were to come tomorrow, what would change about how you would live out today? Why don't you live like this everyday?
3. Take some time to pray for the people you mentioned in question 1.
