Weekend Discussion Questions

November 21-22, 2015

Community:

1. Does your family have a mission statement? If so, what is it?
2. In what ways do you and your family spend quality time together?

Core:

1. Read John 14:14. Is Jesus' description of his Father's house different than what you originally thought about heaven?
2. What is your first reaction when you think about living together with Jesus, in His house, forever?
3. Read Deuteronomy 6:4-9. What are some physical things you can do, like in these verses, to help you and your family love God with all of your heart, soul, mind, and strength?
4. How much time did you spend with your family and friends last week—without electronics being used? What do you think would happen if you stopped using electronics around the people close to you this week.
5. What is one thing that you can change in the next year, to spend more quality time with the people you love the most?
6. What is one thing that you can lay down or re-prioritize in order to do something more important for someone else?
7. You have been empowered to dictate the pace of your life, but have you given that control over to someone/something else? If so, what or who is it?
8. Think about the most important relationship(s) in your life. What can you do to impact these relationships and make them better?

Challenge:

This week's message focused on how we spend time, and do life together. Obviously, we can all do better at this. Write down the top three things you can do to better the way you spend time with others. Start working on these things over this week—maybe using Thanksgiving Day as a great starting point.
