Community:

1. What would you say is your greatest gift or talent?
2. If you could master any skill or talent, what would you pick?

Core:

1. Jim talked about how radical (and controversial) it was when Jesus referred to God as "our Father". Jesus was the first person to refer to God in such a familiar way—and tells us to do the same. Do you feel that same family connection with God? Why or why not?
2. Looking over your life, can you think of a time or times where God was good to you? Are there times when you were thankful He was with you?
3. What do you think would have to change in your life for it to be perfectly aligned with God's will? Does the thought of that change make you excited or fearful?
4. What are you hoping that God will provide for you?
5. Where are you tempted to not trust God or let go of Him?

Challenge:

In Jim's training challenge this weekend, he encouraged everyone to read or pray through the Lord's Prayer for the next four weeks. This week, try starting each day by sticking to this training: reading or praying through the Lord's Prayer, stopping after each section, and paying attention to where you sense God is directing your focus and attention.
