// Discussion Questions

1. Read Psalm 23. Identify some attributes of God described in this passage. (E.g., shepherd, leader, restorer, comforter, etc.)
2. What attributes of God described there stand out the most to you?
3. When was a time in your life when you felt the presence of the LORD being that to you?
4. When was a time in your life when you felt that God wasn't being that to you?
5. What is it about that negative experience that is hard for you to understand?
6. What questions do you have for God from that time in your life?
7. Are you willing to commit to memorizing Psalm 23? Why or why not?

// Psalm 23 (King James Version)

¹The LORD is my shepherd; I shall not want.

²He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

³He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

⁴Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

⁵Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

⁶Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the LORD for ever.
